

As a logged out user, I want to be able to log in to the app by using credentials of one of my social media or email accounts, so I don't have to spend time making a new profile.

- Given an error when attempting to log in, I will be prompted to try again.
- Given no error when logging in, I will be redirected to the home page.